The Registration Process

Students will meet with Mrs. d'Albenas to discuss class choices, scheduling, etc.

- ▶ Directions for looking up classes will be emailed out to students
- ▶ Students will be asked to attempt to build their own schedule first
 - ▶ If students have any difficulty, they can see Mrs. d'Albenas for assistance

The Registration Process

Students will bring a printout or screenshot of their Planning Worksheet to Mrs. d'Albenas to pick up a registration form

The Registration Process

Students will pick up a blue registration form from Mrs. d'Albenas

- ▶ GPA and test scores will be verified
- ▶ Courses/times will be approved

Students will be responsible for taking the blue registration form to FSW to get registered

- ▶ This step is crucial and is the student's responsibility
 - ▶ Failure to complete this step will result in the student not being registered for FSW courses

You're Registered... Now what?

The Registration Process

Once registered, students will bring Mrs. d'Albenas a copy of their FSW schedule

- ▶ Baker schedule will be adjusted
- ▶ Students must turn in a copy of their FSW schedule before May 18.

The Registration Process

Students may only make adjustments until the end of the add/drop period of the semester

- ▶ Any requests to drop courses after the add/drop period must be approved by the School District
- ▶ Add/Drop for the Fall 2018 semester ends TBD

Textbooks

Baker will order textbooks based on schedules received by May 18

- ▶ Textbooks are provided by the School District
- ▶ Any delay in receiving your FSW schedule or any changes made to your schedule after May 18 WILL result in a delay in receiving your textbooks
- ▶ Textbooks must be returned as soon as the semester is over

Textbooks

Students must compare the textbooks that are received to their syllabus IMMEDIATELY upon receipt

- ▶ Professors report their “Required Materials” to the FSW bookstores
 - ▶ The School District uses this information to order the appropriate textbook
- ▶ Sometimes, the professors change their materials and do not inform the bookstores
- ▶ If you receive the incorrect materials, you must email Mrs. d’Albenas immediately with a screenshot of the syllabus where it states the correct “Required Materials”
- ▶ A new textbook will be supplied as quickly as possible

Do Well

Grades are important

- ▶ You are starting your permanent college transcript
- ▶ Ask for help when needed
 - ▶ Know your resources... at Baker AND at FSW
- ▶ Stay organized and focused
